Purpose of Training Series

The Title IX rule effective August 14, 2020, creates a new and specific process by which postsecondary institutions must manage complaints of covered sexual harassment on campus.

The TC Title IX Training Series is designed to provide foundational training to those individuals who will help to administer this required process, including Title IX coordinators, investigators, adjudicators, advisors, appeal officers, and individuals responsible for managing informal resolutions.

Use of Training Series

Institutions of higher education are welcome to use this foundational training series at their discretion, and to post the series to their websites as part of their Title IX training materials (a requirement under the new rule).

TC also is available to prepare custom Title IX training sessions, hearing simulations, and other assistance with Title IX matters (contact Aaron Lacey or Scott Goldschmidt).

Curriculum for Training Series

The foundational training series includes the following six sessions:

The Formal Complaint Framework

The Big Picture

Discrimination Based on Sex: Institutions are obligated to adopt and publish grievance procedures that provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of student and employee complaints alleging any form of prohibited sex discrimination occurring against a person in the United States. 34 CFR 106.8(c)-(d).

Title IX Sexual Harassment: With or without a formal complaint, institutions with actual knowledge of Title IX sexual harassment occurring in an education program or activity of the school against a person in the United States must respond promptly in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent and complies with 34 CFR 106.44(a).

Formal Complaint of Title IX Sexual Harassment: In response to a formal complaint of sexual harassment, institutions must follow a Title IX formal complaint process that complies with the new standards set forth in 34 CFR 106.45.

Formal Complaints

A formal complaint of Title IX sexual harassment means a document filed by a complainant or signed by the Title IX Coordinator alleging sexual harassment against a respondent and requesting that the school investigate the allegation of sexual harassment.

For the purpose of addressing formal complaints of sexual harassment, a school's Title IX complaint process must comply with a wide range of specific requirements set out in the new rule, including specific requirements concerning hearings.

- ❖ Treat complainants and respondents equitably.
- ❖ Objectively evaluate all relevant evidence – including both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence – and provide that credibility determinations may not be based on a person's status as a complainant, respondent, or witness.
- ❖ Understand the presumption that the respondent is not responsible for the alleged conduct until a determination is made at the end of the grievance process.

What does it mean to objectively evaluate relevant evidence?

- Impartial consideration of available evidence.
- No prejudgment of parties, witnesses, facts at issue, or how facts at issue are presented.
- No deference to recommendations of an investigator.

What is inculpatory and exculpatory evidence?

- Inculpatory evidence shows or tends to show respondent's responsibility.
- Exculpatory evidence shows or tends to show the respondent is not responsible.

What are credibility determinations and why are they significant?

- A determination by adjudicators of what statements to believe and what statements not to believe.
 - Adjudicators may believe everything a party or witness says, part of it, or none of it.
- In some situations, there may be little to no evidence other than the statements of the parties themselves.

What does the presumption of innocence mean for the respondent?

- “The presumption does not imply that the alleged harassment did not occur; the presumption ensures that recipients do not take action against a respondent as though the harassment occurred prior to the allegations being proved, and the final regulations require a recipient’s Title IX personnel to interact with both the complainant and respondent in an impartial manner throughout the grievance process without prejudgment of the facts at issue, and without drawing inferences about credibility based on a party’s status as a complainant or respondent.”

Institutions are required to include a live hearing in their formal complaint process.

- The adjudicator cannot be the same person as the Title IX Coordinator or the investigator.

Absent any request from the parties, live hearings may be conducted either with all parties physically present or with participants appearing virtually, with technology enabling them to see and hear each other.

 - Rules of decorum.
 - Timing and length of breaks.
 - Prohibition on disturbing the hearings.
 - Prohibition on badgering witnesses.
- Make sure to review your school's policies thoroughly.

Why Advisors?

“...the Department does not believe that the benefits of adversarial cross-examination can be achieved when conducted by a person ostensibly designated as a “neutral” official. This is because the function of cross-examination is precisely not to be neutral but rather to point out in front of the neutral decision-maker each party’s unique perspective about relevant evidence and desire regarding the outcome of the case.”

Adversarial Advisors

If a party's advisor of choice refuses to comply with a school's rules of decorum (for example, by insisting on yelling at the other party), can the school require the party to use a different advisor?

Thus, police reports, SANE reports, medical reports, and other documents and records may not be relied on to the extent that they contain the statements of a party or witness who has not submitted to cross-examination.”

Last Updated: May 20, 2020

On May 19, 2020, the U.S. Department of Education published the official version of its new Title IX regulation in the Federal Register. This new rule constitutes the first significant revision of the Department's Title IX regulations concerning sexual harassment in over 40 years. Among other things, the new rule revises the scope of a school's responsibility for managing incidents of sex discrimination, codifies procedural requirements for the resolution of Title IX complaints, and defines key concepts in the law. The effective date of the new rule is August 14, 2020. Below, we provide a comparison that shows the changes the new rule will make to 34 C.F.R. Part 106 as of August 14, 2020. We have created this document by comparing the existing rule to the changes set forth in the Federal Register, noted above.

Institutions with questions regarding the new Title IX rule are welcome to contact Aaron Lacey at (314) 552-6405 or alacey@thompsoncoburn.com. Subpart A—Introduction §106.1 Purpose and effective date.

The purpose of this part is to effectuate title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended by Pub. L. 93-568, 88 Stat. 1855 (except sections 904 and 906 of those Amendments) which is designed to eliminate (with certain exceptions) discrimination on the basis of sex in any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance, whether or not such program or activity is offered or sponsored by an educational institution as defined in this part. This part is also intended to effectuate section 844 of the Education Amendments of 1974, Pub. L. 93-380, 88 Stat. 484. The effective date of this part shall be July 21, 1975.

§106.2 Definitions.

As used in this part, the term:

(a) Title IX means title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Pub. L. 92-318, as amended by section 3 of Pub. L. 93-568, 88 Stat. 1855, except sections 904 and 906 thereof; 20 U.S.C. 1681, 1682, 1683, 1685, 1686.

(b) Department means the Department of Education.

(c) Secretary means the Secretary of Education.

(d) Assistant Secretary means the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights of the Department.
